

ATMA RAM SANATAN DHARMA COLLEGE (UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

Tarangini: The Cultural Society

Tarangini celebrated AKSA' 24 – Skill cum Diwali Mela on 24th October 2024 with great enthusiasm. The campus was beautifully decorated, creating a festive atmosphere. Cultural performances were the main highlight — Kalashree (Indian dance society), Outbreaks (Western dance society), and Nritya Fusion showcased incredible talent through diverse and energetic performances. The event concluded with a fun-filled DJ Night, making the celebration a memorable blend of culture, joy, and festive spirit.

On the occasion of Teachers Day, Kalashree, The Indian dance society, delivered a stunning semi-classical performance that captivated the audience with its grace, elegance, and expressive storytelling. The act was not only artistically rich but also deeply engaging, adding a unique and heartfelt charm to the celebration.

Complementing the atmosphere, Saarang, The Music society, enchanted everyone with a soulful medley of melodies dedicated to teachers. Their performance featured a beautiful blend of classical and contemporary tunes, evoking nostalgia and gratitude. The heartfelt vocals and harmonious instrumentals created a serene and emotional ambiance, making the celebration truly memorable.

Together, both performances added depth, colour, and warmth to the event, leaving a lasting impression on all present.

Tarangini, organised its three-day annual cultural festival from March 6, 2025 to March 8, 2025.
