NIMBUS TALKMASTERS- CONVENTIONAL DEBATE

Date of the Program: 25th February, 2020

No. of the Participants: 47

Organized by: Nimbus, The English Debating Society, ARSD College

Nimbus organised its annual debate competition- Talk Masters on February 25, 2020. The motion of the debate was “THBT the poverty of the third world is the fault of the first world”. The event saw participation from a number of colleges, with more than 20 teams competing for the cash prizes. There were also constant interjections from our panel of judges who were Dr. Nidhi Sharma and Ms. Soumya Tyagi (Assistant Professors, Department of English, ARSD) and Dr. Apra Sinha (Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, ARSD). The debate brought a lot of different opinions to the table. Overall, it was a very successful event.

As a part of Tide 2020, the college fest, the annual conventional debate competition of Nimbus was held on 25th February, 2020. The debate was held in teams of two, with the total cap of participants being twenty. It was a riveting discussion held on the topic "The house believes that the poverty of the third world is the fault of the first world", with a time limit of two minutes for speaking and one for interjection. The discussion enriched with knowledge broadened the minds of both, the participants as well as the organising committee and proved to be a very successful venture.
