Gandhi Study Circle always tries to disseminate Gandhian thoughts and practices and its relevance in contemporary time. It believes that not only theoretical but also practical aspect of Gandhiji should reach to the students so that they may follow the Gandhian way of life. In the light of this objective Gandhi Study Circle keeps on organising various programmes and activities. On 26 September, 2019, Gandhi Study Circle organised an essay writing competition. Topic of this competition was “Relevance of Gandhi in Contemporary Times”.

Gandhiji believed non-violence and tolerance require a great level of courage and patience. In a world that is moving through the phases of war marred by violence and terrorism, there is a significant requirement of Gandhian idea and thoughts more and more today than the past days. Many students participated in this essay writing competition and expressed their excellent views on the topic. Dr. Indrajeet Kumar Jha evaluated all the scripts impartially with integrity and recommended Minakshi Borwah, Ankit Anand and Sudhir Shukla for first, second and third prize respectively. He suggested that there were many excellent scripts vividly elaborated the relevance of Gandhi in contemporary times and few essays must be published. The programme was very successful and great achievement of the society.
