- The Chairperson noticed the need to emphasise on the introduction of interdisciplinary add-on courses (in offline/online mode) with greater participation of our students in areas like:
 - IT and ICT such as software training in METLAB and a short-term course in 'Business Intelligence'.
 - Training in soft skills and communication skills; a 30 hours training program by the Placement Cell in collaboration with IQAC is underway.
 - Short-term courses in theatre techniques, dance drama, set designing and lighting; a classical nritya naatika is underway.
 - Short-term courses in research paper writing and research proposal writing, in tune with the requirements of NEP'20.
- The Chairperson also informed the members that the IQAC is also planning to:
 - Train the teaching and non-teaching staff towards effective implementation of the NEP'20.
 - Train the College staff in GeM operations.
 - Set up a Skill Centre catering to the need of NEP focussing on skill upgradation of the students
 - Initiate a Research and Development Cell and an ICT Cell in the College.
 - Conduct a refresher course
 - Set-up a laptop lab on the second floor of the College to meet the requirement of new Skill Enhancement Courses
 - Renovate the gym.
 - Design a Wall-of-Fame.
 - Celebrate National Science Day on 28th February by organizing 'Working Projects' and other competitions for the science stream students.
- The committee decided that the girls and female staff washrooms should be equipped with sanitary napkins dispenser machine.
- The committee also agreed that a mechanism should be developed to recognise our sports achievers.

The meeting ended with vote of thanks to the chair.
