

ATMA RAM SANATAN DHARMA COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

DATE -14" August, 2023

A film Screening was organised by Dastan, History Department of ARSD college in collaboration with Republica, Association of Political Science And TILT .

Under the closing week of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav & flagship of Meri Maati, Mera Desh Presents screening and discussion on movie "Partition:1947".

Dr Priyam Barooah and Dr. Amit Singh were the panelist for the discussion. The Film was based on the transfer of power from British Govt. to Govt. of India and Pakistan. The film explores the difficulties faced by British Govt. particularly Lord Mountbatten in controlling Riots, easing Communal Tensions and transferring power to Both the Govt. of India & Pakistan. It portrayed The Ideological conflicts between leaders [Nehru, Gandhiji, Jinnah] regarding 2 nation theory and the Problems which arose during the Partition such as Violence, Displacement and Refugee Crisis.

After the Screening, Dr Priyam Barooah and Dr. Amit Singh both presented their view on Partition, following which the floor was opened to the audience to ask questions and offer their thinking on the topic. Students actively took part in the discussions. The theme of discussions covered a broad spectrum of topics such as Cold war alliance, National integrity, Foreign Policy, separatism, sub nationalism, Role of Media in shaping narrative and Akhand Bharat.

After the discussions the attendees were given refreshments which marked the end of the event. The Gripping plot of the movie followed by a rich conversation between panel members and the audience provided a great thought-provoking experience for the attendees

