No. of Participants: 96

Organized by: ARA The North East Society of ARSD College

Collaboration with: IQAC

Place: Seminar Hall 1

Speaker: 1. Dr. Joy L. K. Pachuau. (Professor at the Centre for Historical Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University)

ARA: The North East Society hosted a talk on the topic “Navigating North East Indian Identity in the age of electronic media and globalization”. To better understand the Identities and their various dynamics, especially through the lens of the northeast Indian, and also to try and understand that there is not only a simple united identity of Northeast but rather the diversity of identities ranging from linguistic to cultural to cuisine. The talk was brought to us by Dr. Joy L. K. Pachuau, who gave us insight into not only the intricacies of the concept of Identity and how it essentially derives its meaning from various factors such as geographical location, race, gender, and even people from the same family have different identities due to their personality and even the role of government in it. But also how to look at it from different perspectives. The role of government in shaping one’s identity. Lastly, there was a Q and A session.
