

ARSD COLLEGE CELEBRATED THE CLOSING WEEK OF AZAADI KA AMRIT MAHAOTSAV

Atma Ram Sanatan Dharma College celebrated the closing week of "Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav" under the flagship of "Meri Maati, Mera Desh" with a plethora of events. The "Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav" was commended with a fruitful inauguration on 9th August with 123 participants reflecting the keen interest and engagement of the audience. The distinguished guest Prof. Anil Rai from the Department of Hindi of Delhi University graced the occasion, emphasizing the significance of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav.

The next day's event included a competition by Rangayan, aimed to provide a platform for participants to showcase their acting and artistic talents through powerful monologues on the theme "Patriotism". The winner was Noor Chawla who captivated her audience with an emotionally charged performance. The next day, Vedanta - The Hindi Debating Society organized "Turncoat" where the participants expressed their views on the freedom struggle. The one to strive through among all was, Shivendra Mishra from Dyal Singh College. On 12th August there were two competitions organised by the cultural society of ARSD. Kalashree, the Indian Dance Society organised 'Jashn-E-Amrit', semi-classical and Folk dance competition. On the other hand, The Outbreaks, the Western Dance Society organised 'Unity One', a solo western dance competition. Both competitions followed the theme of patriotism. The winner for the former event was Dakshita Bhargava and Laddoo for the latter. On August 13, Nimbus- The English Debating Society hosted a competition "Dissent Discourse". The one to win the judges over with his debating skills was Sairaj Goudar from Jindal Global Law School. The motions and the debates centred around them were focused on themes related to the Independence of India and the importance it holds.

Subsequently, Artesaniya - the Fine Arts and Craft Society of ARSD organised a Rangoli-making competition in which the first position was bagged by Rahul Mallick of Zakir Hussain College.

On 14th August, the events kicked off with the first one being "Retro Runway", organised by Steller - the Fashion Society of ARSD. The first place was given to Anjali Azad. The following event, "Swarotsav" was organised by Saarang, the Music Society of ARSD. The one to win the judge over with his musical melodies was Siddhart Behel from Hansraj College. A film screening of the movie, "Partition:1947" was organised by Dastan- the History Department of the university in collaboration with Republica, Association of Political Science and TILT, The Film Appreciation Society.

The culmination of the closing week of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav was held on 15th August on our 77th Independence Day. It followed a series of performances from NCC cadets and the cultural society of the college. There was reciting of poems done by several students of the college, one of the few memorable being, "Sada Hindustan Rahe", by Abhyudaya. The event ended with a performance from the members of NCC with their song "Hum Sab Bhartiya Hain". The overall event was a huge wave of success under the guidance of our principal, Prof. Gyantosh Kumar Jha, Prof. Captain Sandeep [ANO], Mr. Deepankar, our cultural society convener and the organising committee of ARSD College.
