Summary:

ARSD NCC organised the Swachhta hi Sewa campaign under the Prime Minister's Swachhta Pakhwada Scheme. Under this campaign Cadets of ARSD NCC indulged in various awareness activities aiming for better waste management and healthier environment.

NCC cadets interacted with civilians at public park and explained them about proper waste management and involved them in cleaning of the park. They further explained the audience regarding the 3-R Principle that is: Reuse – Recycle – Reduce and briefed using examples regarding the fine line among these. They discussed the 2 BIN System with the general public and its importance that is for source segregation so that it can be recycled properly.

Moreover, they planted seeds in a public park and depicted the civilians the significance of adopting healthy lifestyle for environment to nurture the mother nature. They showed the public, hazardous impact of single use plastic and its better alternatives like paper/cloth/jute bags which can be reused. In this manner, the Cadets presented themselves in front of general public and conveyed them with the different techniques of waste management and how they can contribute for a better environment.

The campaign was not only limited to offline mode but was also widely shared through various social media platforms.
