

Atma Ram Sanatan Dharm College hosted monologue competition in honour of 76th Independence Day celebrating Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav in seminar hall II. Organised by Rangayan, the competition aimed to provide a platform for participants to showcase their acting and artistic talents through powerful monologues on theme "Patriotism".

The primary objective of the competition was to promote Patriotism with creativity and celebrate 76 years of independence. Our teamwork diligently worked to make the event a success.

In which 21 students participated each participant got the duration of 10 minutes to convey their best performance. Each contestant whole heartedly contributed to make the competition tough to be judged. Apart from enthusiasm distinguished among contestants, another fact that was observed was that the performers also covered a variety of aspects of Patriotism, which was quite beyond belief and praiseworthy.

We had an immensely talented panel of judges:

1. Mr. Himmat Singh Negi
2. Mr. Bhanupratap Singh

The esteemed panel of judges evaluated contestants based on acting skills, delivery, emotional depth, voice modulation, overall impact and technical accuracy.

Each performance was critiqued constructively to provide informative feedback to the contestants.

After careful deliberation and keeping all the criteria in knowledge, the judges selected the winners:

- First place: Noor Chawla for emotionally charged performance.
- Second place: Ishita Srivastava for a captivating portrayal.
- Appreciation: Aman Gupta & R. Harini
- Special Mention: Dev & Amrita

The event attracted an engaged audience of attendees.

Participants also expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to perform and showcase their talents at the event.
